Missoula, Montana

As the LORD God Almighty by His Holy Spirit uses my body, mind, soul, and spirit to drive the automobile to locations He has designed by His Hands, I went to downtown Missoula. Before evangelizing the Word of God today, I was looking for the U.S. Postal Service to mail some letters, so putting the destination in the GPS I was on my way. However, the LORD had another plan and direction for me to go. On the road, the LORD shown me a hospital on the way, and I circled the hospital for a parking spot and found one inside the parking deck.

Before getting out of the vehicle, I pray to the LORD for His mercy, grace and love and Holy Spirit to show me where to go inside the hospital to leave free Holy Bibles. As I walked inside this beautiful hospital, with many different offices and its levels, I walked inside one of them. I asked the receptionists at the front counter, “May I may leave free Holy Bibles for customers, visitors, or patients?” She told me, “I am new and in training, you will need to ask her (trainer).” So, I did and she told me she did not know, but will take one anyway to ask if we could allow it. I then asked the second receptionist if she wanted a free Holy Bible, and she looked surprised and I said to her, “It will not hurt, it will only help you”, and she took the Holy Bible Gospel Packet.

Next I walked down the hallway to the oncologist office in the hospital, and asked the receptionist at the desk counter the same question of leaving free Holy Bibles. She said, “I do not know, you will need to go to administration to ask them.” “Thank you”, I said and started my give-away-free-Holy-Bibles-at-hospital trek to the administration office.

Inside the administration office, I greeted the two ladies with a compliment of having a beautiful office with a lovely view. I spoke with one lady gave her my name and explained why I was here, and I that I traveled around the country giving away free Holy Bible. She responded, “No, we cannot allow the Holy Bibles left here at the hospital.” I said, “Would you like a free Holy Bible?” She said, “No, I have one.” I then said to her, “Well, I would like to give you a free newsletter, Days of Noah and some poems from my first book, Journey of Poems – A Still Small Voice.” “Thank you”, she replied. “Enjoy your beautiful office and have a blessed day!” I said to her and walked out of the hospital and back to my vehicle to drive to the U.S. Post Office.

1 Samuel 12:14 NKJV

If you fear the LORD and serve Him and obey His voice, and do not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then both you and the king who reigns over you will continue following the LORD your God.

I parked and placed quarters in the parking meter and walked around the block. While walking toward the U.S. Post Office, I noticed businesses along the way and walked inside of one of them, which were a personal / fitness training business. At the counter, I waited for someone to approach me and someone did. I introduced myself and she did likewise, and I asked her if I may leave free Holy Bibles on the counter for customers? She replied, "I am a Buddhist", and I would not want one." "Oh, well, may I leave one Holy Bible for someone who may want one?" I asked her. Somewhat reluctantly, she told me, "Yes, you may leave it (Holy Bible)." I thanked her and walked out the door onward to the U.S. Post Office.

Since I was unfamiliar with downtown Missoula, again the LORD God Almighty had me to walk around inside the city into another building to ask directions to the U.S. Post Office. This building is a government federal type with offices and upon walking inside it has the metal detector devices for people to walk through to detect any metal of any kind on his or her person. I asked the guard standing at the metal detector machine, "I am new here, where is the Post Office?" He replied, "It is just right out here", and he pointed for me to walk outside and walk around to the right of the building because the U.S. Post Office was parallel to the federal government building. I thanked the guard and began to walk out the door, when the Holy Spirit told me to stop and turn around and go back to him. "Yes, LORD God Almighty I will obey what You say." Pulling out from the plastic bag filled with Holy Bible Gospel Packets, I said, "I would like to give you a free gift, an ESV Holy Bible." I explain to him what the ESV Holy Bible was, "It is the Holy Bible in the language we speak today, in the words we use to speak with today", and I told him. He was looking at the ESV Holy Bible, and said, "One that uses words that we use today." "Yes", I replied, "Thank you for the directions, God Bless you."

After leaving the U.S. Post Office, the LORD God Almighty had me to drive to a Senior Center that included a Thrift Store inside. I walked down stairs to the Thrift Store that is on the bottom floor and later discovered the Senior Center in on the top floor. I walked toward a group of seniors playing pool and ones I saw played well. I waved my hand hello to them, and waited for the right moment to ask if anyone would like a free Holy Bible. A woman asked me if I play pool, and I said, "Many years ago, I played pool." She said to me, "I too played pool many years ago, and I am learning to play all over again." That was the LORD's sign to ask them all the question of wanting a free Holy Bible. The friendly woman said to me, "No, I have two Bibles at home." One gentleman said, "No, but thank you anyway."

Deuteronomy 13:4 NKJV

You shall walk after the LORD your God and fear Him, and keep His commandments and obey His voice;
you shall serve Him and hold fast to Him.

I then walked over to the ones working in the Thrift Store, and asked if I may leave free Holy Bibles for customers. They told me I need to walk upstairs to ask them in the administration office. I walked up the stairs to the administration office and greeted the receptionist and introduced myself with my name and what I would like to do. She referred me to the President of the Senior Center and she walked out of her office and we shook hands and I told her my name and why I was there at the Senior Center. At first, she and her receptionist did not know how to answer the question, and said, "I know we can't leave any political information here, but I don't know about religious information." I then asked them both, "Is there anyone else we could ask?" "I don't mind waiting here for the answer", I told the President. The President of the Senior Center said a remarkable statement, "We are the ones you would go to answer this question since I am the president, and we should know the answer." Then again I told them that I give away free Holy Bibles around the country, even mailing them free to anyone who would like a Holy Bible for free. Then the Holy Spirit of the LORD God Almighty began to work on the President of the Senior Center and she said, "Yes", you may leave them on the table and on the counter." She introduced me to one of the seniors named Al, and I met another one named Tom. Inside her office gave me one of her business cards and introduced me to the director Chris. We spoke more about the senior center and what events they are having now and in the future. She invited me to some of the Senior Center upcoming events, but I told them I was heading out leaving tomorrow. I gave her my business card and told Chris and her that we will stay in touch by email.

2 Kings 18:6 NKJV

For he held fast to the LORD; he did not depart from following Him, but kept His commandments, which the LORD had commanded Moses.
