

From Anger to Angel

The minor difference between the words “anger” and “angel” are the letters “r” for rebellion and “l” for love, which makes these words have major differences in meaning. Rebellion and Love are at the two opposite ends of the spectrum of works of the flesh and Fruit of the Spirit.

Definition of “Anger”*: “a feeling of great annoyance or antagonism as the result of some real or supposed grievance; rage; wrath.” The consequences of works of the flesh are anger which produces emotional and physical detriment.

Definition of “Angel”*: “theol one of a class of spiritual beings attendant upon God. In medieval angelology they are divided by rank into nine orders: seraphim, cherubim, thrones, dominations (or dominions), virtues, powers, principalities (or principedoms), archangels, and angels; a divine messenger from God; a guardian spirit; a person, esp a woman, who is kind, pure, or beautiful.” An outcome of the Fruit of the Spirit is an angel of kindness, pure and beautiful divine messenger from Yahweh.

FEAR + HATE = VIOLENCE. Satan the devil uses fear to cause people to hate individuals, resulting in the fearful person committing violence. The violence shown to the individual who is feared is through various ways such as, resentment, jealousy, gossiping, meanness, or apathy. Trying to keep up with the “Joneses” will result in many individuals falling away from the straight and narrow path onto the wide and spacious road of antipathy toward everything and everyone in life.” Description of “Keeping up with the Joneses”

...is an idiom in many parts of the English-speaking world referring to the comparison to one's neighbor as a benchmark for social caste or the accumulation of material goods. To fail to "keep up with the Joneses" is perceived as demonstrating socio-economic or cultural inferiority. (Wikipedia, n.d., http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Keeping_up_with_the_Joneses)

The best way to remedy the urge of works of the flesh and trying to keep up with a human being is by developing a list of Thankfulness to Yahweh of His many blessings in our lives. Prevent keeping up with the Joneses by comparing ourselves to the Master Messiah Yeshua Jesus Christ of Nazareth. Through “eating” and “drinking” the Fruit of the Spirit the Holy Spirit will cause us to “digest” and follow Yeshua’s (Jesus’) way when reading and doing His word the Holy Bible causing an limitless desire to seek, obey, and serve the will of the Heavenly Father Adonai Elohim Yahweh.
