Ezekiel 33

Bring sword against the land.	And the sword comes and takes someone's life.
Watchman sees the sword coming against the land.	That person's life will be taken because of their sin.
Watchman blows the trumpet to warn the people.	But I will hold the watchman accountable for their blood.
Anyone hears the trumpet but does not heed the warning.	When I say to the wicked, 'You wicked people, you will surely die,'
The sword comes and takes their life; their blood will be on their own head.	And you do not speak out to dissuade them from their ways.
Since they heard the sound of the trumpet but did not heed the warning, their blood will be on their own head.	Those wicked people will die for their sins.
If they had heeded the warning they would have saved themselves.	And I will hold you accountable for their blood.
But if watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet to warn people.
But if you warn the wicked.	That persons' former wickedness will not bring condemnation.
To turn from their ways.	The righteous, if they sin, will not be allowed to live because of their former righteousness.
And they do not do so.	If I tell the righteous that they will surely live.
They will die for their sins.	But then they trust in their righteousness and do evil.
Though you yourself will be saved.	None of the righteous things they have done will be remembered.
"Therefore, son of man, say to your people, 'If someone who is righteous disobeys.	They will die for the evil they have done.
That person's former righteousness will count for nothing.
And if someone who is wicked repents.

Ezekiel 33

RIGHTEOUS	WICKED
If disobeys.	If repents.
Former righteousness count for nothing.	Former wickedness will not bring condemnation.
If commit sin.	If turn away from sins.
Will not be allowed to live due to sin.	Do what is just and right.
Former righteousness will not allow person to live if he or she commits sin.	If they give back what they took in pledge for a loan.
If they trust in their righteousness and do evil.	Return what they have stolen.
No righteous actions will be remembered.	Follow the decrees that give life.
They will die for the evil ways and actions.	Do no evil.
If turn from righteous ways and actions and do evil.	They will surely live.
They will die for it.	They will not die.
	None of the sins they have committed will be remembered against them.
	They have done what is just and right, they will live.
	Turn from wickedness.
	Do what is just and right.
	They will live by doing so.
