Chapter 1--- Journey Poems of 2006

Poem #1:

I had no place to call my home,
Wandering here and there I roam.
My friends and family took me in.
On the road again I am like the wind.
One day I met a person with a plan;
At the time I did not understand.
He said if I believe and pray
To Him in the sky I'll meet one day.
Thank God I have a bed.

Thank God I have a roof over my head.

Thank God I have food to eat.

Thank God I don't sleep in the street.

praise You.
Lord God tell me what to say,
And Lord God I will obey.
I am Your servant eager to do Your will.
I need You in my life and inside me Your Holy Spirit fill.

Poem #3:

My television: it is my best friend.

My television: it has been with me through thick and thin.

My television: it helps me to sin.

My television: I sit in front of it to watch the news spin.

My television: I like to watch my team win.

Instead of reading the Holy Bible, praising the Lord where I should have been.

My television: cozy and warm like my kin.

(Written inside bookstore Davis-Kidd in Nashville, Tennessee, this poem started out as a joke that was inspired by a family member who loves to watch television.)

Poem #4:

The god of this world had come down to it to destroy, steal, and kill.

The god of this world makes everything seem like a must-have and a thrill.

Televisions, computers, i-Pods, i-Phones, video games, cellular telephones, are now the gods of our day.

When will we seek the kingdom of God first and follow His way?

Poem #5:

If I acknowledge God in all my ways,

The Lord will guide and direct my step.

When I trust God and believe in my heart all is okay,

There is no need for me to worry nor to fret.

Lord God show me what to do
So that I may glorify, honor, and

Chapter 3 --- Journey Poems of 2008

Poem #6:

Lord God You have a plan for me,
Although as of yet I do not see.
I do not fully understand Your reason;
You surely will work it all out in Your time and season.

You will give me a future and a hope;
I need not complain and grope.
When in all matters I trust You,
You will guide me on what to do.

Poem #7:

Jesus Christ died on the cross
To save a sinner like me who was lost.
The Lord Jesus rose from the grave;

What an awesome price He paid.

He shows His forgiveness, mercy, and grace,

And He allows me to seek His face.

As I obey Him, He gives me favor;

My one true God and Savior.

Poem #8:

God our hearts will test
To see if we love Him or love our flesh.
When we let go of our fears
Through many, many sorrowful tears
And what we thought was a mess,
The Lord God truly will bless.

Poem #9:

I will cry

Out to the God Most High

Who is my King,

Gives me everything.

I am in the shadow of Your wings

For my soul trusts in You,

And I will make You my Refuge.

Poem #10:

The Lord is righteous in all His ways;
The Lord keeps all who love Him all
His days.

The Lord is kind in all His deeds;

The Lord will provide all your needs.

Chapter 4 --- Journey Poems of 2009

Poem #11:

If we without ceasing to God pray,
Trust in God, have faith, and His commandments we obey,
God's hand upon us to help us to
endure;
Testing from the Lord is to make us
spiritually pure.

Poem #12:

Jesus knew the destiny of His life
Was to be given as a sacrifice
For the redemption of our sins.
Jesus gave His life so we could live
again.

Poem #13:

Peter's fear caused doubting God in
unbelief;
Looking at the waves and wind brought him grief.
Sinking in the water to Jesus he cried
out;
Immediately Peter's situation turned about.

Jesus reached down to catch Peter's
hand;

They both walked on water and
eventually on dry land.

Poem #14:

I will glorify the Lord and give You
praise;

I will glorify the Lord and lift up Your name.

I will glorify the Lord; I will love to obey.

I will glorify the Lord; I will do and speak what You say.

Poem #15:

Give God praise while in the test and
trial;

It will only last a while.

Long time seems the tribulation;

God will receive all the glory, honor,
and adulation.
