I. Listening; Watching; Waiting; Walking = (ELOHIM) Blessings; Favor; Grace; Mercy; Salvation

A. Listening. Definition of "Listen" is "to pay attention to someone or something in order to hear". Not only do we need to pray to Elohim, but also listen to Him. Listening leads us to heed His words. Without listening to Elohim, we would not know His desires, directions and instructions. Listening helps us to do His will in our life pleasing Him.

B. Watching. Definition of "Watch" is "act if looking at someone or something; close observation". After listening to Elohim, we watch for His words to become alive and true to us. Watching for Elohim with sincere Spiritual "eyes" in our heart and mind for His movement in our situation. We watch for Elohim's hand to move or not to move for He is in control in our situation for our best and His Most High Esteem, honor, and praise.

C. Waiting. Definition of "Wait" is "act of staying until something happens or someone arrives". As we listen, and watch for Elohim, we wait for His actions or non-actions. Elohim non-actions in our situation is also an answer to the dilemma. Waiting is part of obeying Elohim's instructions. Waiting in expectation with faith (walking in the substance of the unseen and the unknowing with confidence that Elohim is working it all out for good – Romans 8:28) for Elohim's perfect timing in every matter.

D. Walking. Definition of "Walk" is "journey on foot"; "to move along on feet at a normal speed"; "to accompany someone on foot." Only after the steps of listening to Elohim, watching for Elohim, waiting for Elohim, may we walk with Elohim. Walking with Elohim consist of daily prayer to Him, reading His word, and doing His word. Walking with Elohim includes our actions of listening, watching, and waiting to stand still to see His salvation. When a two people are walking together side by side, one will speak as the other listens, and then the other person will speak as the other individual listens. The same principle is applied when we are walking with Elohim; we pray earnestly to Elohim, Elohim listens, Elohim speaks to us as we listen. We are actively moving together with Elohim as we walk with Him.

This interaction of listening, watching, waiting, and walking with Elohim is only achieved by the person repenting, asking Elohim forgiveness of all sins, forgiving others, and becoming born-again by the Blood of the Lamb, Messiah, Yeshua, Yahusha, Jesus Christ of Nazareth with the Ruach HaKodesh, Set-Apart Spirit, and Holy Spirit.

Elohim's Blessings, Favor, Grace, Mercy, and Salvation will come to any individual who is humbly seeking, obeying, serving, and loving Him with all his or her heart and loving his or her neighbor as the person loves himself or herself.

We pay attention to Elohim to hear His voice. Looking at Elohim through His word and Ruach HaKodesh (Holy Spirit), we closely observe His ways, commandments, statues, and laws. We actively look for and stay with Elohim until He causes something to happen, He sends His angel (messenger) and/or until He arrives. We journey with Elohim by moving along with Him in the word of the Holy Bible, His Words in our spirit, and His Ruach HaKodesh (Holy Spirit) through His Son the Messiah, Yeshua, Yahusha, Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

As Elohim accompanies us, He graciously listens to our contrite and genuine prayers and petitions. In turn, as His born-again by the Blood of the Lamb believing children of Elohim, we lovingly listen and heed to His instructions and guidance in our daily lives.
