As I was spending time reading, meditating, and studying the Holy Bible, Yahweh's Word, as I "walk" with Him, He gave me this poem.

I Know, But

I know I cannot see You, but You woke me up today,

I know I cannot see You, but Your Hand will show me the way.

I know I cannot see You, but You are there,

I know I cannot see You, but me You are to prepare.

I know I cannot see You, but You are in total control,

I know I cannot see You, but You are saving my soul.

I know I cannot see You, but You see all and every action,

I know I cannot see You, but You will deliver me from the evil contraption.

I know that I cannot see You, but You will guide my feet,

I know I cannot see You, but feeling Your Presence is so sweet.

I know I cannot see You, but Your Holy Spirit is inside of me,

I know I cannot see You, but Your Son the Messiah set me free.

I know I cannot see You, but You love me from the start,

I know I cannot see You, but I love You with a sincere heart.

I know I cannot see You, but I put my hope, faith, and trust in You,

I know I cannot see You, but You will direct me in what to say and what to do.

I know I cannot see You, but Your beautiful creation is throughout the earth,

I know I cannot see You, but Your power is seen all over the universe.
