Dreams the LORD God Almighty sent to me.

First dream.

On the evening of Thursday, 09/16/2010 while I was sleeping in the bed, the LORD God Almighty gave me a dream. The LORD God Almighty woke me up the next morning, Friday, 09/17/2010, with the dream still in my head. This is the dream the LORD God Almighty gave me the previous night on Thursday, 09/16/2010:

In this dream was a large body of water coming toward a city or town washing it away. Once where a major city or town stood was now only a body of water remained. In the dream, I and a few people were standing around this body of water looking at it. It appeared in my dream I and these other people were talking about the body of water, but we knew a major disaster had happened. That was the end of this dream.

Second dream.

On the evening of 09/17/2010 while I was sleeping in the bed, the LORD God Almighty sent me another dream. When the LORD God Almighty woke me up from sleep the next morning on Saturday, 09/18/2010 the dream was still in my head. This is the dream the LORD God Almighty gave me the previous night on 09/17/2010:

In the dream, I was riding inside an automobile and another person was driving. It seemed we were just out on a drive throughout the town or city on a particular road. The person driving our automobile was following another automobile just ahead of us as though we were being lead by someone of familiarity or family member to a particular place or destination.

The next scene in my dream was me looking out the window of the automobile and seeing an entire mall flatten to the ground. The LORD God Almighty showed me in the dream a red circle logo of a major retail department store, which is Target. The top of the logo sign of the major retail store, Target, was on the ground.

I did not know who the person driving in the automobile ahead, but the LORD God Almighty revealed the identity of the person to me later in the dream.

I saw rubble and stones on the ground where once a mall of a major department and retail stores once stood. The driver of our automobile stopped, and we both looked on in wonderment.

The person in the automobile ahead of us continues driving through the rubble stones of devastation. However, when the person in the automobile ahead of us stopped their vehicle, the person got out of the automobile and began walking through the rubble of stones. The stones and/or bricks of rubble were white with an ashy looking color and appeared white-washed or powdery.

The stones of white-washed color were everywhere I still did not know who this person was as he or she walked out of the line of our sight down the stone brick rubble laden path.

When the person walked back toward us in our automobile, that is when the LORD God Almighty revealed the person of familiarity to me; it was my mother. Still a distance away, my mother walked toward our automobile with one of the white-washed ashy color looking stone in her hand. After seeing the devastation disaster of stones and bricks of rubble on the ground, my mother had a look on her face of sadness and disappointment.

End of the two dreams from the LORD God Almighty I had on Thursday, 09/16/2010 and Friday, 09/17/2010.

Thus said the LORD God Almighty:

A major body of water is coming to hit a major city or town in America.

A major earthquake is coming to hit a major city or town in America.

Definition of “white-washed” from www.wikipedia.com, 2010:

Whitewash cures through a reaction with carbon dioxide in the atmosphere to form calcium carbonate in the form of calcite, a reaction known as carbonatation.

When the paint initially dries it is uncured, and has almost no strength. It takes up to a few days, depending on climate, to harden.

It is usually applied to exteriors; however, it is traditionally used internally in food preparation areas, particularly rural dairies, for its mildly antibacterial properties. Occasionally it is coloured and used on structures such as the hallways of apartment buildings, but it is not popular for this as it can rub off onto clothing to a small degree. In Britain and Ireland whitewash was used historically, both externally and internally, in workers' cottages, and still retains something of this association with rural poverty.

Whitewash is especially effective on adobe-like materials because it is absorbed easily and the resultant chemical reaction hardens the substrate. Also, whitewash and adobe are both very low cost building materials. Whitewash is applied to trees, especially fruit trees, to prevent sunscald.[1] Some also claim that it helps prevent insect damage. Most often only the lower trunk is painted.

In the middle of the 20th century, when family farms with dairy barns were common in the Upper Midwest of the USA, whitewash was a necessary part of routine barn maintenance. A traditional animal barn contains a variety of extremely rough surfaces that are difficult to wash and keep clean, such as stone and brick masonry, and also rough-cut lumber for the ceiling. Left alone these surfaces collect dust, dirt, insect debris and wastes, and can become very dirty. Whitewash aids in sanitation by coating and smoothing over the rough surfaces. Successive applications of whitewash build up layers of scale which flake off and in the process remove surface debris with it. The coating also has antimicrobial properties that provide hygienic and sanitary benefits for animal barns.[2]

The LORD God Almighty is going to “white-wash” the earth by His Hands. American and others have become contaminated with extremely rough surfaces that are difficult to wash and keep clean by their own actions of flesh. America and many people continues to leave alone its rough surfaces of fleshly actions, causing collection sins of dust, dirt, debris and wastes and resulting in a state of spiritual dirtiness. Some people in this “white-wash” spiritual state will hope either they could do something special actions in church or place of worship or that no one will notice their rough spiritual surface needs washing clean and they continue the hidden deplorable sinful lifestyle.

In the dream, the sad look on the face of my mother represents the sadness the LORD God Almighty having toward the false teachers and preachers in His house or place of sanctuary. Religious leaders or anyone who teaches or talks to a group of people about the Word of GOD the Holy Bible, is held double accountable for teaching and living the truth of GOD's Word the Holy Bible to the congregation or group of people.

Many people who have attended places of worship for many years as members or visitors do not know or how they need spiritual purging, pruning and purifying. The reason for the lack of knowledge of this subject matter is the lack of true uncontaminated speaking and living the truth of God’s Word the Holy Bible from the leaders of the place of worship. It is crucial for an individual to read his or her own Holy Bible asking the LORD God Almighty in the name of the Son of Man, Son of God through the Holy Spirit for Godly wisdom when reading the Holy Scriptures.

As the Great Deception increases in America, we need to daily pray and read our Holy Bible for instructions, directions, discernment, wisdom, protection, favor, and guidance for what to do and what not to do, what to believe and what not to believe, and what to say and what not to say.

Not only does the LORD God Almighty uses white-washing to cleanse us spiritually from all our sins through the Blood of the Lamb, but also He uses white-washing to sanitize our spiritual walk by using the Holy Spirit in our lives. The Holy Spirit is to help us to spiritually “coat and smooth over our rough surfaces” our straight and narrow path by teaching us to walk in a way pleasing to the LORD God Almighty. It is not easy being an obedient humble servant of the LORD God Almighty in a place that is growing and going away from the Biblical teachings of the LORD God Almighty. We will have spiritual rough places to encounter brought on by other people, family, friends, and even our own self. We can only overcome rough places of sin by the strong Hand of the LORD God Almighty Jesus Christ / Yeshua Ha-Mashiach and the Holy Spirit.

Psalm 51:7
